There are areas in Bucharest with a special charm, where history is spectacular and each building has its own story. So is this 4 rooms apartment located on the high ground floor of a beautiful villa in the Kiseleff area.

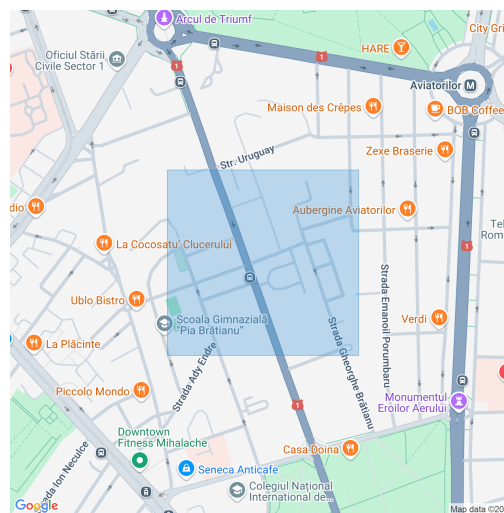

It is perfect for a residential destination - positioning on one of the most beautiful streets in Bucharest, near Kiseleff and Herastrau parks, Victoriei Square and Charles de Gaulle Square or offices - positioning on the high ground floor of the building completed around 1936 (without seismic risk, thermally insulated); For an office destination, the rental price is 2,300 euros / month.

The apartment with an area of approx. 100 sqm has four rooms, a bathroom and a service toilet, a living room with relaxation space, dining and office area, two bedrooms, an access vestibule with storage spaces, a hallway and a closed kitchen.

The free height of the rooms, the warm atmosphere and the best quality finishes will pleasantly impress you from the first sight of the space. You can also enjoy its own central heating, air conditioning, laminated wood joinery with double glazing and the box in the basement of the building. Type B energy performance.
